WHO IS THE SUB-FUND SUITABLE FOR?			Additional Information
The ILP Sub-Fund is only suitable for investors who seek to maximise total return; seek to invest in stocks of companies engaged in gold-mining worldwide; and are informed investors willing to adopt capital and income risk. Please note the ILP Sub-Fund does not distribute income and where applicable will re-invest any income received from the underlying fund. It is important to remember that, as with most investments, the value of your investments are not guaranteed and can go down as well as up. Therefore we suggest that you only invest money that can be committed for the medium to long term. You should also bear in mind that securities held within a fund may not be denominated in the currency of that fund, so unit prices may fall purely on account of exchange rate fluctuations. Please note that Friends Provident International Limited (“FPIL”) investment products are intended for medium to long term investment and are not therefore designed for early surrender. If you do surrender early, a product surrender charge may be applied. Please note that the earlier you terminate your plan, the more you may lose.			-For details of surrender charges please refer to the section on ‘Fees and Charges’ in the relevant Product Summary. -Please refer to the ‘Investment Objective, Policy and Strategy’ section of the underlying fund’s Singapore prospectus for further information on the suitability of the Sub-Fund.

KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? -The value of an investment is not guaranteed and can go up and down depending on performance. You could get back less than you have paid in. At times, the ILP Sub-Fund may, subject to the Appointed Actuary's agreement and provisions allowed for in the Policy Conditions, need to change the way its price is calculated, to ensure that those moving into and out of the ILP Sub-Fund are treated fairly. This can have a negative effect on the ILP Sub-Fund's price and performance. -Fund managers have the ability, in exceptional circumstances, to suspend trading in their funds for as long as necessary. When this occurs we will need to delay the 'cashing in' or switching of units in the relevant fund. You may not be able to access your money during this period. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:	Additional Information -Please refer to the 'Valuations and Pricing' section of your Policy Conditions for further information. -Please refer to the 'Risk Factors' section of the underlying fund's Singapore prospectus and the 'Risk Considerations' and 'Specific Risk Considerations' sections of the underlying fund's Luxembourg prospectus for further information on the risks of the Fund. -Please refer to the 'Risks' section of the relevant Product Summary for further information.
Market and Credit Risks
The Fund may be subject to Currency Risks -Foreign currency exchange rate movements are likely to influence the returns to investors in Singapore, hence investors may be exposed to exchange rate risks.

The Fund may be subject to Emerging Market Risks

-The Fund may invest in one or more emerging markets and may be subject to a higher than average volatility than investing in more developed markets due to greater political, tax, economic, social, foreign exchange, custodial, liquidity, regulatory or other risks.

The Fund may be subject to Foreign Investment Restrictions Risks

-Some countries prohibit or restrict investment, or the repatriation of income, capital or the proceeds from sale of securities. The Fund may incur higher costs investing in these countries. Such restrictions may delay the investment or repatriation of capital of the Fund.

The Fund may be subject to Limited Market Sectors Risks

-The Fund's investments are concentrated in the gold and precious metals sector, which may include investments in commodities-linked exchange traded funds. This may subject the Fund to greater volatility and more rapid cyclical changes than more broad-based investments.

Liquidity Risks
You are exposed to Liquidity Risks

-There may be occasions when the manager is unable to sell some or all of the shares within the Fund, which could delay payment or redemption of proceeds.

-Redemptions in the Fund may be suspended in certain circumstances detailed in the Prospectus; this may in turn affect the ILP Sub-Fund.

Product-Specific Risks
The Fund may be subject to Derivatives Risks

-The use of derivatives may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivative contracts can be highly volatile and a relatively small market movement may have a potentially larger impact on derivatives than on standard bonds or equities. Leveraged derivative positions can hence increase the Fund's volatility. The Fund may sustain loss as a result of the failure of a derivatives counterparty to comply with the terms of the derivatives contract.

The Fund may be subject to the risks of Securities Lending

-The Fund may engage in securities lending. As such, the Fund will have credit risk exposure to the counterparties to any securities lending contract. The Fund's investments can be lent to counterparties over a period of time. A default by the counterparty combined with a fall in the value of the collateral below that of the value of the securities lent may result in a reduction in the value of the Fund.

The Fund may be subject to Smaller Capitalisation Companies Risks

-The Fund may invest in small capitalisation companies. Such investments may have higher than average volatility and liquidity risks.

APPENDIX : GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Bond/Fixed Interest Security

A bond is a type of investment that represents a written promise to repay a debt at an agreed time and to pay an agreed rate of interest on that debt. It provides periodic payments (which may be fixed or variable) and the return of capital at maturity. Generally, because these types of assets guarantee an income and are less risky than other types of assets they offer a lower return.

Equities

Ownership positions in companies that can be traded in public markets. Often produce current income which may be paid in the form of dividends. In the event of the company going bankrupt equity holders' claims are subordinate to the claims of preferred stockholders and bondholders.

Efficient Portfolio Management (EPM)

EPM is a set of standards for prudent management of investment funds. The standards call for economically appropriate transactions that reduce risk, reduce cost or generate additional capital or income. For example, a currency overlay strategy using derivative instruments could be used to reduce volatility in asset returns resulting from currency fluctuations or be used to take advantage of these fluctuations to gain extra return.

Exchange Traded Fund (ETF)

A security that tracks an index, a commodity or a basket of assets like an index fund, but trades like a stock on an exchange. ETFs experience price changes throughout the day as they are bought and sold.

Expense Ratio

The Expense ratio provides customers with an indication of the overall costs of investing in a particular fund. The expense ratio as calculated in accordance with the Investment Management Association of Singapore's guidelines on the disclosure of expense ratios.

Different methods of calculation of Expense Ratio can be used, including Total Expense Ratio (TER) and Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF) but these are broadly the same.

Financial Derivative Instruments (FDI)

Also known as Derivatives. Financial contracts whose value is tied to an underlying asset. Derivatives include futures and options.

Hedge/ Hedging

Any transaction with the objective of limiting exposure to risk such as changes in exchange rates or prices.

Leverage

The use of financial instruments to increase the potential return of an investment.

Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF)

A type of expense ratio. The ongoing charges figure is based on expenses for the previous year and is a ratio of the total ongoing charges to the fund's average net asset value over its last reporting period. This figure may vary from year to year. The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of the underlying ILP sub-fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

For more information about charges, please consult the Prospectus for the underlying fund of the ILP sub-fund invested in, available from <http://www.fpinternational.sg/fund-centre/product-highlight-sheets-phs>

Details of the calculation methodology can be found in full at http://www.esma.europa.eu/system/files/10_674.pdf.

Open-Ended Investment Company

An open-ended collective investment vehicle, structured as an investment company, where new shares are created or redeemed, depending on demand from investors.

Securities Lending

The act of loaning a stock, derivative, other security to an investor or firm. Securities lending requires the borrower to put up collateral, whether cash, security or a letter of credit. When a security is loaned, the title and the ownership is also transferred to the borrower.

Specified Investment Product (SIP)

SIP is a class of investment products defined by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS). Generally, (although not in all instances), financial advisers have to carry out more due diligence, including customer knowledge assessment, when advising about a SIP.
